What is Fair Trade?

Fair Trade is a global movement that puts people and the planet before profit.

Fair trade guarantees

- A minimum price agreed with producers

- Additional premium: to invest in projects for the community

- Greater respect for the environment.

- Safe and fair working conditions

- A co-operative or workers' committee in which women take an active role